

Narrative Writing Brainstorm

Stories connect us with the world, because each of us has a unique story of our own.

Using the suggested prompts, write about a meaningful or significant experience you've had and turn it into a story.

Possible Topics:

- Your proudest moment
- When you learned an important lesson
- A memorable trip
- The time you conquered a challenge
- A big event
- A funny story

Answer the following questions in 2-3 sentences:

How does the story begin?

Where and when did this happen?

What caused the event to happen?

How did you feel during or after the event?

Why is this story significant to you?
